

A large, stylized green tree logo is positioned on the left side of the slide. The tree has a thick trunk and several rounded, leafy branches. The entire tree is rendered in a solid green color. The title text is overlaid on the upper portion of the tree.

Funding for Natural Flood Management

Jon Hollis
Natural Flood Management
Programme Manager

January 20th 2020

A - Heavy works (large capital projects)

C - Farming and land management practice

B - Minor works (small capital or revenue work)

D - Whole scale land use change

Current Situation

www.defra.gov.uk

Flood and Coastal Resilience Partnership Funding

Defra policy statement on an outcome-focused, partnership approach to funding flood and coastal erosion risk management

23 May 2011

defra
Department for Environment
Food and Rural Affairs

A - Heavy works (large capital projects)

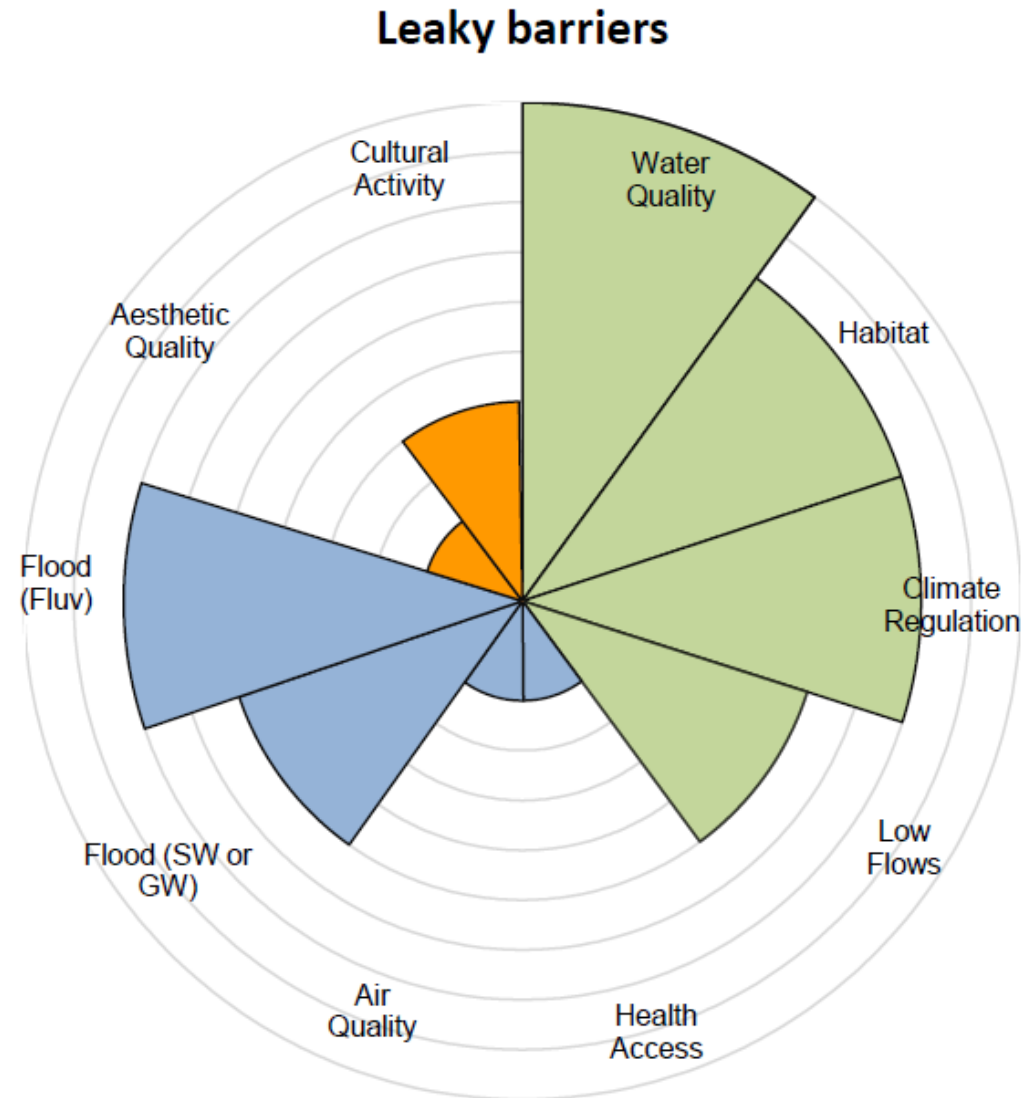

Current Situation

www.defra.gov.uk

Flood and Coastal Partnership Funding

Defra policy statement on a partnership approach to fund flood and coastal erosion risk

23 May 2011

(large ts)

The future

www.defra.gov.uk

Flood and Coastal Resilience Partnership Funding

Defra policy statement on an outcome-focused, partnership approach to funding flood and coastal erosion risk management

23 May 2011

Funding Mix for NFM types

NFM	FDGiA	Local levy	ELMs/CS/CSF	WEG/EP	Other
A: Hard Engineering	✓	✓	✗	✓	~
B: Minor works	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
C: Changes to farming	✗	✓	✓	✓	✗
D: Landscape	~	✓	✓	✓	✓

So what is the Future Funding for NFM?

jon.hollis@environment-agency.gov.uk

